New Channels Coming In July

TriCounty Telecom is planning to add several channels to your lineup in July. Although contract negotiations are still underway, following is a list of proposed channels.

Classic: Daystar (22)

Elite: Ovation (216)

Deluxe HD: CNN (738), TNT (743), MASN (758), MASN2 (759)

Elite HD: CBS College Sports (882), MGM (898)

MTV, currently on channel 22, will move to channel 74.

Depending on the package to which you subscribe, you will now have access to over fifty high definition (HD) channels. To view HD programming, you will need an HD/DVR receiver as well as an HD television. The HD/DVR receiver leases for $12.95 per month and includes DVR capabilities.

Daystar offers an extensive blend of interdenominational and multicultural programming including live events, programming for children, teens and women, music, original programming and top national ministries. Ovation is devoted to the visual and performing arts with a mix of documentary and performance programming. MGM HD showcases hand-picked offerings from the celebrated Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film library—Hollywood's largest modern film library.

Watch for an updated lineup in your July statement.

2010 FIFA World Cup June 11 - July 11

ESPN will present the entire 2010 FIFA World Cup™ June 11 through July 11 from 10 stadiums in nine cities across South Africa. All 64 matches will be aired live and in high definition on ESPN (channel 31; 731) ESPN2 (channel 32; 732) and ABC, (channel 12; 712) with extensive coverage on ESPN3.com. In addition, 2010 FIFA World Cup studio programs, including prematch, halftime and postmatch segments, will be presented in high definition.

The first game will be Friday, June 11, on ESPN and ESPN3.com, with the tournament's opening match at 9:30 a.m. from the Soccer City in Johannesburg, host country South Africa vs Mexico. ESPN will air 44 FIFA World Cup matches, ESPN2 will feature 10 matches and ABC will broadcast 10, beginning with the U.S. Men's National Team's tournament opener vs England Saturday, June 12, at 2 p.m. ET in Rustenburg.

ESPN3.com is available to TriCounty Telecom High-Speed Internet customers. Log on to goTriCounty.com today to get remote access. You must subscribe to TriCounty Telecom DSL service at speeds of at least 512K for ESPN3.com access.

Feature Presentation

High definition (HD) channels are available in the Deluxe and Elite packages, as well as HBO, Cinemax, Showtime and Starz for subscribers to these premium packages.

High Definition TV (HDTV) in widescreen provides the highest resolution and picture quality of all digital television formats. An HDTV picture can have up to 1080 lines, allowing for sharp picture detail. Combined with digitally-enhanced sound technology, HDTV achieves a new benchmark for sound and picture quality in television.

To enjoy HDTV you will need an HD television and an HD/DVR receiver. The HD/DVR receiver leases for $12.95 a month.

The HD/DVR receiver gives you the ability to digitally record, store and playback all your favorite programs and control live TV with pause, rewind and instant replay functions.

Why have an HDTV if you aren't going to watch in HD? Call 964-8000 and start enjoying HD today! Note: Enjoy DVR functions without an HDTV.
